DRAKE MAYE SUPERFANS

THE COMMISSIONER REPORT | WEEK 5 | INAUGURAL DYNASTY SEASON

JAVIER HITS 175.20. TIM FINALLY GETS A WIN.

Maine wins by 0.58, Cole keeps rolling, and the Side Pot desk experiences an unprecedented outbreak of fiscal responsibility.

FRONT PAGE	WEEK 5 BY THE NUMBERS
JAVIER: 175.20 The week's top score, a 53.06-point victory over Chris W. TIM: 164.32 A huge total that finally comes with a win. MAINE: 119.08 Wins by just 0.58 against David.	53.06 largest margin 0.58 closest margin 4–1 Cole's record 101.26 weekly low 0 Side Pot entrants

THE FRONT-PAGE STORY

Javier put up 175.20 against Chris W's 122.14 and made a statement loud enough to reach the next division. The 53.06-point margin was the largest of Week 5, sending Javier to 3–2 after opening the season 0–2. Chris W's record falls to 3–2, and the "how is this team winning?" investigation has temporarily become "how did this team lose by 53?"

Tim finally got a break. After scoring 155.68 and 161.36 in back-to-back losses, he scored 164.32 and actually won, defeating Colin B's formidable 154.60. That is 481.36 points across three weeks, with exactly one victory to show for it. Congratulations to the league's most aggressively inconvenienced offense.

Maine and David produced the week's smallest margin: 119.08 to 118.50, a difference of 0.58. Week 4's 0.76-point squeaker barely lasted seven days as the league's benchmark for cruel finishes. Elsewhere, Mark edged Mike by 3.26, John beat Chris M by 6.14, and Cole handled Colin M by 42.50 to improve to 4–1.

SIDE POT FLASH

Week 5 entrants: NONE. Most Points Scored: No winner. Biggest Blowout: No winner. Nobody entered, nobody won, and the Commissioner's Side Pot ledger spent the week collecting dust. Apparently the league has discovered financial responsibility. Disgusting.

EVERY MATCHUP, EVERY EXCUSE

WINNER	PTS	LOSER	PTS	MARGIN
Javier	175.20	Chris W	122.14	53.06
Tim	164.32	Colin B	154.60	9.72
Mark	145.64	Mike	142.38	3.26
Cole	143.76	Colin M	101.26	42.50
John	131.54	Chris M	125.40	6.14
Maine	119.08	David	118.50	0.58

GAME OF THE WEEK — MAINE 119.08, DAVID 118.50

A 0.58-point victory, because apparently last week's 0.76-point game was not quite petty enough. Maine's reward is a win and the privilege of checking for stat corrections with the intensity of a forensic accountant.

BLOWOUT OF THE WEEK — JAVIER +53.06

Javier posted 175.20, the highest score in the league, and beat Chris W by 53.06. This is the official league-wide biggest blowout; with no Side Pot entrants, there was no Side Pot award.

GM OF THE WEEK — JAVIER

High score. Largest victory margin. Third consecutive win after an 0–2 start. The kind of week that makes a manager act like he has always had the answers.

UNLUCKY BASTARD CLUB — COLIN B

Colin B scored 154.60 and lost to Tim's 164.32. Tim has vacated the club president's chair for one week; Colin B may borrow it, but the lease is month-to-month.

MONDAY FALLOUT — MARK AND MIKE

Mark survived Mike 145.64 to 142.38. A 3.26-point result keeps Mark climbing and leaves Mike with the unpleasant task of explaining how a respectable 142.38 turned into a loss.

BONEHEAD DESK — COLIN M

Colin M's 101.26 was the lowest score of Week 5. Against Cole's 143.76, the math was not especially forgiving.

THE WAIVER WIRE — THREE CLAIMS, ZERO DOLLARS

The recorded Week 5 transactions show three completed $0 waiver claims: Maine added Sleeper player ID 13150 (no drop); Mike added 11608 (no drop); David added 7083 and dropped 2078. No trades appeared in the supplied Week 5 transaction response. Nobody spent FAAB. The economy remains frozen.

SIDE POT DESK — CLOSED FOR BUSINESS

David — competitive but now 2–3. 6. Colin B — big points, three straight losses. 7. Mike — narrow defeat. 8. Maine — two consecutive wins, both close. 9. John — 3–2 after beating Chris M. 10. COMMISSIONER'S FINAL WORD

Week 5 belongs to Javier on the scoreboard, Tim in the redemption department, and Maine in the microscopic-margin division. Cole is still the team everyone has to chase. The Side Pot was empty, the waiver wire was free, and the league remains committed to turning every Sunday into a personal insult. See you in Week 6.
